Dear Aspiring Chartered Accountants,

As we step into a new year, I am filled with optimism and enthusiasm for the journey that lies ahead for each one of you. January marks not just the beginning of a calendar year, but also a renewed commitment to our goals and aspirations in the field of Chartered Accountancy.

Reflecting on December's Achievements:

In December, our branch successfully conducted several initiatives aimed at enhancing your learning experience. Notably, we organized the CPE Seminar on GST on December 14th, which provided valuable insights into the latest developments in Goods and Services Tax. The active participation and engagement from students were truly commendable.

Upcoming Opportunities:

Looking ahead, I encourage you to take advantage of the various programs and resources that SICASA Thiruvananthapuram has planned for the coming months. These initiatives are designed to support your academic growth and professional development.

As you set your goals for this year, remember that consistency and perseverance are key. Stay focused on your studies, seek guidance when needed, and make the most of the opportunities that come your way. ## The Clockmaker's Dream

In a town where time once froze,
Lived a man with gears for prose.
Tick by tick, he shaped the hours,
Wound the moons and tuned the flowers.

One night, as silence softly crept,
He dreamt the stars no longer wept.
Their golden hands refused to spin,
Holding secrets deep within.

The sun rebelled, the tides stood still,
Morning loomed but lost its will.
Birds sang songs they'd never known,
In voices carved from hollowed stone.

With trembling hands, he forged a key,
A door of dusk, a lock set free.
Through its arch, the night poured wide—
And time returned, like shifting tide.

Now the town still tells his tale,
Of ticking dreams and stars grown pale.
For those who wind the hours true,
Shape the world in hues anew.
